

UNI
FR
■

UNIVERSITÉ DE FRIBOURG
UNIVERSITÄT FREIBURG

u^b

UNIVERSITÄT BERN

The Meaning of «1989» Thirty Years Later

International Conference, University of Fribourg
October 18, 2019

Foto: Tamás Lobenwein

osteuropa-studien
études de l'europe orientale
BERN FRIBOURG

WISSENSCHAFT.
BEWEGEN
GEBERT RUF STIFTUNG

Program

Venue: University of Fribourg, Misericorde, MIS10 01.13

9.30–10.00 Opening Remarks

Jens Herlth

10.00–12.00 Panel I: Memory Cultures and Politics of History

Chair: Julia Richers (University of Bern)

Oksana Myshlovska (University of Bern): 1989 in Soviet Ukraine: Examining the Emergence of Early Civil Society and the Development of Mnemonic Conflicts

Ekaterina Makhotina (University of Bonn): Promise of the Past. Making Sense of Soviet (Hi)Story in Russia After 1989

Regina Fritz (University of Bern): Contested Memories. Dominant and Counter Narratives of the Holocaust in Hungary Since 1989

Discussant: Carmen Scheide (University of Bern)

12.00–13.00 Buffet Lunch

13.00–15.00 Panel II: The Year «1989» and Its Different Political Meanings Thirty Years Later

Chair: Nicolas Hayoz (University of Fribourg)

András Bozóki (Central European University): The Dominant Ideas of 1989 Revisited

Paulina Codogni (Polish Academy of Sciences): The Polish Year 1989 and Its Perception Thirty Years Later

Darina Malová (Comenius University in Bratislava): Combative Memories of the Year 1989 in Slovakia's Divided Polity: Velvet or Gentle Revolution?

Discussant: Jiří Pehe (New York University)

15.00–15.30 Coffee Break

15.30–17.30 Panel III: Migration to and from Central, Eastern and Southeastern Europe

Chair: Eva Maurer (Swiss Library of Eastern Europe SOB)

Joanna Kosmalska (University of Łódź): Polish Migration Stories Since 2004

Attila Melegh (Corvinus University of Budapest): From Socialist Modernization to a Biopolitical Panic. Historical Sociological Analysis of the Rise and Hegemony of Anti-Migrant Demographic Nationalism in Hungary and Eastern Europe

Marta Stojić Mitrović (Serbian Academy of Sciences and Arts): Azilanti and Ilegalni Migranti in Administrative and Public Discourse in Serbia: Concepts and Practices in a Diachronic Perspective

Discussant: Matthieu Gillibert (University of Fribourg)

17.30–18.00 Closing Remarks

Nicolas Hayoz

University of Fribourg
Misericorde
Rue de Rome 1
1700 Fribourg

Contact: Dr. Magdalena Solska
magdalena.solska@unifr.ch

Concept and Organisation: Osteuropa-Studien Bern-Fribourg www.osteuropa-studien.ch